Confucius: The Golden Rule

Confucius was a minor government official who desperately wanted to change the government of China.

Confucius: The Creator of the Golden Rule

Confucius was a sage, philosopher and teacher who, with Laozi and Buddha, lived at an extraordinary time in the evolution of human civilization.

The Golden Rule is the principle of treating others as you want to be treated. It is a maxim that is found in most religions and cultures. It can be considered as the ethic of reciprocity or some religions, although different religions treat it differently. The maxim appears as a positive or negative injunction governing conduct: treat others as you would like others to treat you (positive or...
